2024 WEDDING GUIDE + PRICING

ABOUT US

Dane and Emily Iwata are an adventurous Colorado-based photo and video team who love weddings and everything they entail. Dane's parents and grandparents owned a photography studio when he was growing up, so he would often tag along to weddings and events to help as a kid. He jokes that photography is in his blood!

In 2012, he started his own photo/video production company and has been producing cinematic wedding films ever since. Emily joined Iwata Productions in 2020 and loves providing her wedding planning expertise and making wedding parties feel comfortable and relaxed in front of the camera.

We love capturing those emotional and unique moments throughout your wedding day, and turning them into stunning short films and gorgeous photo galleries. We strive to make you comfortable, help you laugh, and truly enjoy one of the best days of your life. We can't wait to document your wedding and get to know you as a couple!

WHAT TO EXPECT

a good time

This is one of most important days of your lives. And we know it took a ton of planning to get here. Don't worry about being nervous in front of the camera - we'll direct you, tell you to whisper sweet nothings, and make you laugh all your nerves away. We will absolutely help you feel comfortable in your skin. Choosing your photo/video team is a super important decision. We're with you through all those intimate moments, every tear, and candid moment. We bring professionalism and fun to your wedding day and love to think of our couples as friends.

timeline construction

As your photo and/or video team, we will help construct and plan your day a few weeks in advance. We will pin down all the addresses, family members' names, who needs to be where and when - all so you don't have to stress about it the day of the wedding. We work with your day of coordinators and on-site staff to make sure everything goes smoothly.

timely delivery

It felt like forever when we waited to get our own wedding photos, so we know the feeling of checking your email every day, hoping for something in your inbox. We strive to deliver as quickly as possible (usually in 4-8 weeks). Please note that during peak wedding season, we may have back-to-back weddings, so our timelines can fluctuate. No matter what, we'll communicate with you along the way!

P.S. That's why we like to get you a sneak peek the very next day so you can enjoy those memories in the meantime.

PHOTO PACKAGES

All photography packages include a complimentary pre-wedding engagement session (depending on the location), post-processing, retouching, and 4-6 weeks delivery time.

We love to travel - there just may be some additional costs. Let's chat about your dream location!
